H2O International has employed the services of William Gets and his firm, Brainstorm Advertising for the last 11 years. It has been an unbelievably pleasant and fruitful association. I found that they were very capable of managing and increasing the value of our brand.

~ Tony Marchesini
CEO - H2O International

A brilliant mind and a natural flair for understanding what the customer wants. I have been relying on Brainstorm's skills in advertising, graphic design and web development for many years to make my business a huge success. William is truly a pleasure to work with.
